Knife Chief Buffalo Nation Society & Generations-Indigenous Ways

To give life to the values, gifts and teachings provided by Tunkasila and Unci (Grandfather and Grandmother) ancestors for the well-being and healing of our people, which include:

Wacante Ognaka- To have a warm and compassionate environment for youth who have experienced trauma, grief and loss and their parent/guardian and siblings. All youth are treated as relatives and addressed appropriately.

Woapiye- To offer an opportunity for the youth (and their family if they wish) to receive a spiritual purification or "wiping off" of the spiritual residue left by experiences of/exposure to trauma.

Wopakinte- To offer an opportunity for the youth to begin or strengthen their healing through Lakota cultural healing responses.

Woyuskin- to provide a happy, fun, and accepting environment.

Lakol Caswicutun Pi- To provide an opportunity for those youth who do not have a spirit name to receive one through ceremony and to have a public acknowledgement of their spirit name to reinforce their Lakota cultural identity.

Wicozani- To provide an opportunity for wellness screenings health and mental health.

Wowasake- To provide an opportunity to strengthen the mind, body, and spirit.

Youth sign up deadline: midnight, June 1, 2024

(or sooner if slots are filled)

Meals and lodging will be provided on site. Please understand that there is a zero tolerance for alcohol and drug use. Lakota protocols and laws will be adhered to and specifically we ask that any female on or near their monthly purification time, do not attend.
